

Looking forward...

A series of 'Zoom' events from the Ministry Team to help us think about the future

Oldham and Tameside
Missional Partnership

Partnership conference

13 July 6.00pm

Open to Elders and Members

Building on the the Northerly Synod's "Life After Lockdown" session, this Partnership Conference will aim to generate practical ideas for congregations and the Ministry Team as we face the future together.

Register your interest:

Email Marion:
pastoralconvener@nwsynod.org.uk
or Darren:
darren.holland@nwsynod.org.uk
stating in the subject line which session(s) you wish to attend, and more information and a Zoom Link will be sent to you.

Two mini conferences

Treasurers & Booking/ Letting Officers

14 July 6.00-8.00pm

Come to share and hear one another's experience of taking care of finance under lockdown. We will also explore ideas and the possible challenges of re-opening for groups, events and fundraising.

Where are the mission opportunities?

Secretaries & Pulpit Supply People

17 July 6.00-8.00pm

Join us to explore common ground and specific questions about leaving lockdown – re-starting worship, face-to-face Church and Elders' meetings – preachers, are they willing to lead worship? If so, how do we care for them?

Where are the mission opportunities?